Hopi Tribe honors Hopi Veterans during National POW/MIA Recognition Day You Are Not Forgotten

Hopi Tutuveni

A short flag raising ceremony was hosted by Chairman Herman G. Honanie and Vice Chairman Alfred Lomahquahu, Jr. on Sept. 16 to honor National POW/MIA Recognition Day. Coordinated by Eugene "Geno" Talas, Manager of the Hopi Veterans Services, the Ceremony was to remember the services of all Veterans, specifically focusing on the Hopi

Veterans who sacrificed their lives to protect our freedom and liberty. "On National POW/MIA Recognition Day, we remember the service of Veterans who were taken prisoner or remain missing," said Talas. "More than 83,000 Americans remain missing from World War II through the present day. We honor the sacrifice of all our Veterans." Chairman Honanie read a Proclamation to honor Hopi POW/MIA's; as honored guests, participants and the audience listened intently. Mrs. Lorenzo Quannie, widow of POW Lorenzo Quannie, US Army World War II was also recognized. She is the widow of POW Lorenzo Quannie, US Army, World War II.

Nasafotie takes Best of Show at Indian Market

Reprint from Santa Fe Journal

SANTA FE—Adrian Nasafotie had Santa Fe Indian Market in mind when he started working on a sculpture he calls "Purification" months ago.

Although the Hopi artist's elaborate cottonwood root carving is delicate, he wasn't going to make anything that he couldn't transport from his home in northern Arizona to Santa Fe.

"I wouldn't even attempt anything like that if I didn't know how to get it here," Nasafotie told the Journal Friday. "They're really expensive, and you want the piece to get where they're destined to."

Nasafotie, from Moenkopi, Ariz., said he made a custom box to transport the carving, which took about six months of work, to Santa Fe for the 95th market.

The arrangement paid off for Nasafotie, as his depiction of Hopi kachinas — one of them with wings and suspended above the others, soaring into the sky — won Best of Show at the 2016 Indian Market award luncheon at the Santa Fe Community Convention Center on Friday. The piece also won the top prize in the woodcarving category.

The market, which features hundreds of artists, attracts tens of thousands from around the globe.

"I probably won't sleep tonight," Nasafotie said with a huge smile after being awarded the top prize. "It hasn't really kicked in yet. I'm just surprised that some of my pieces get ribbons."

Top prizes after Best of Show were for best-ofs in nine classifications, including pottery, textiles, paintings, basketry and textiles, along with many ribbons handed out for various sub-categories during Friday's awards ceremony.

Group from Hopi travels to Standing Rock Sioux to support opposition of pipeline construction

Crystal Dee, Hopi Tutuveni

A group of Hopi/Tewa members representing their clans and villages departed from the Polacca Circle M store in the late evening of Sept. 15 for the Standing Rock Sioux reservation in Canon Ball, ND. The Hopi/Tewa group stands in solidarity with the many Tribal Nations supporting the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe.

This group was spearheaded by Samantha Honanie and Waylon Pahona Jr., both from the Tewa Village with hopes of drawing attention to issues on the Hopi reservation.

The Standing Rock Sioux tribe is protesting the construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline (DAPL) in North Dakota. DAPL, an underground oil pipeline project extending through four states, ends in Illinois. The construction of the pipeline threatens the tribe's only source of drinking water supply by digging the pipeline under the Missouri river. In addition the construction would damage burial sites, a cultural and historical significance to the tribe.

"We have many issues our tribe is facing regarding water rights and the protection of it; such as the arsenic problem, the Arizona Snowbowl and the Confluence," said Honanie.

The group feels strongly in supporting the nations gathered in Standing Rock in solidarity towards protecting their only source of water.

Since the protesting began in August, many have been following it on Facebook. Those at camp have been posting updates daily and have asked for donations of water to winter clothing as they plan on staying through winter.

Many Tribal Nations and supporters around the world have traveled to the Standing Rock Sioux reservation to stand in soliarity. Protestors have increased by the thousands and have set up camp at the Sacred Stone camp. Camp officials have asked individuals who are coming into camp to not bring weapons, drugs or alcohol.

The Hopi/Tewa group is praying their journey will be safe and their presence will be done in a respectful way as they take gifts of traditional Hopi foods to feed the people.

Pahona said their support is a positive one to show they can be self-sufficient and hopes others can see how proactive they can be about these issues in a positive way.

"We hope to bring motivation to our local communities to be more active in our own struggle and issues regarding Hopi water and instill a sense of pride and values within ourselves and our children," said Honanie.

Editorial Guidelines

Do you have an opinion or perspective you would like to share with Tutuveni readers? Do you, your group or organization have a newsworthy event or activity of interest to the Hopi community that you want to report on? The Editorial Board and Managing Editor for the Hopi Tutuveni extend an invitation to readers to submit letters and articles you feel are of interest to the Hopi community. Although submission does not guarantee publication, we will do our best to read all submissions promptly and contact you within one week if we are interested in publishing your letter or article. The following guidelines are provided to help you prepare your submission and to increase the likelihood that it will be published.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letters to the editor should be of concern or interest to Tutuveni readers. Letters must be original, previously unpublished and written by the person whose name appears with the letter. The writer’s name must be included with the letter, along with the writer’s address and daytime phone number to aid with verification; the phone number will not be published. Anonymous letters and letters written under pseudonyms will not be published. The Tutuveni reserves the right to edit letters for length and clarity, and may decline to print letters considered potentially libelous or slanderous in nature. Letters should not exceed 500 words.

NEWS ARTICLES

The Hopi Tutuveni welcomes non-commissioned, self-generated articles reporting local, state and national news items of interest to members of the Hopi Tribe. We are especially interested in articles reporting on local events and activities involving members of the Hopi Tribe. Submission does not guarantee publication. Articles may be edited for style, length and clarity. If significant editing is required, the Managing Editor will communicate with the writer prior to publication. Article submissions should not exceed 1500 words.

Flag flies at half mast in honor of Ethel Sahmie (Jenkins)

The United States flag, outside the Hopi Tribe Legislative building, flew at half mast on Sept. 15 at the order of Hopi Chairman Herman G. Honanie in “honor and recognition” of Ethel Sahmie (Jenkins) as a World War II Veteran.

Ethel Sahmie was First Lieutenant in the U.S. Army during World War II. Sahmie entered service on October 6, 1943 and was honorable discharged on January 27, 1946.

She had the distinction of being the only known female Hopi Veteran who returned after the war to live a full life; she was 96 years old.

Know the Basics of Diabetes

By: Terri Honanie
Hopi Special Diabetes Program

There are three types of diabetes: Type 1, Type 2, and Gestational Diabetes.

Type 1: Body does not make enough insulin

- Can develop at any age
- No known way to prevent it

Type 2: The body cannot use insulin properly

- Can develop at any age
- Most cases CAN be prevented

Gestational Diabetes: Develops only during pregnancy

- Usually goes away after the baby is born
- Mother and baby are at higher risk for developing Type 2 Diabetes later in life

What can you do to PREVENT or DELAY Type 2 Diabetes?

- Lose weight
- Eat healthy
- Be more active

What you can do to MANAGE Type 2 Diabetes?

- Work with a health care professional
- Eat healthy
- Stay active

Diabetes is the fourth leading cause of death for Arizona American Indians/ Alaska Natives (AZ Vital Statistics, 2013). In 2014, 11.6% of Hopi children ages 2-5 years old were classified as overweight, and 55.2% were classified as obese (IHS EDM, 2009-2014). Type 2 Diabetes is a chronic disease, which means it is a disease that develops over time and can be delayed or prevented with proper nutrition and a healthy active lifestyle. The staff at The Hopi Wellness Center can help in these areas. The Hopi Special Diabetes Program offer community presentations and family wellness programs with educational curriculum about eating healthy and developing healthy habits. The Fitness Center Staff are certified physical fitness trainers who can help people of all fitness levels and offer group fitness classes throughout the week. Together we can lower the number of diagnosed diabetics, let's Keep Hopi Moving!

For more information about community presentations or fitness activities, please contact the Hopi Wellness Center at (928) 734-3432. Check out our website at www.hopi-nsn.gov for a listing of current and upcoming events at the Hopi Wellness Center and the Hopi Veteran's Memorial Center.

Hopi Tribe 2016 Preliminary Final Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy

Andrew Gashwazra, Sr., Director
Office of Community Planning and Economic Development

The Hopi Tribe receives a $60K grant from the U.S. Economic Development Administration’s (EDA) through The Office of Community Planning and Economic Development (OCPED) to update the Hopi Tribe’s Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy among other planning efforts. The 2016 Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS) is currently being distributed for public review and comment. It is downloadable from the Tribe’s website: <http://www.hopi-nsn.gov/tribal-services/office-of-community-planning-development/>

- Village Community Service Administration Offices
- First Mesa Consolidated Villages Office
- Hopi Tribe Office of the Chairman
- Office of Community Planning and Economic Development
- Hopi Tribal Economic Development Corporation

5200 E. Cortland Blvd, Suite E200-7, Flagstaff, AZ.

With the Tribe’s loss of revenues and budget cuts, it is critical that the CEDS should take into account and, where appropriate, integrate or leverage other regional planning efforts, including the use of other available federal funds, private sector resources, and state support which can advance a CEDS goals and objectives.

A broadly inclusive process can build leadership, enhance cooperation and enthusiasm, foster public ownership, and is vital to the creation of a relevant and effective document, therefore, your participation in review and providing comment is important to addressing the current economic conditions and future planning for Hopi. The final public comment period for the CEDS 2016 will end October 31, 2016 however any information and comments contributing to future CEDS updates can be provided anytime.

20th Annual Hopi Special Needs Activity Day

Crystal Dee
Hopi Tutuveni

The Office of Special Needs (OSN) hosted the 20th Annual Special Needs Activity Day on Sept. 13 at the Hopi Veteran’s Memorial Center.

The event began with a parade from groups representing various centers, agencies and schools on and off the reservation.

Elyse Lomawaima, OSN Secretary and Stewart Dukepoo who both had a hand in coordinating the event, agreed the Special Needs Activity Day this year was different from years previous because they removed some things from the program.

“We wanted to focus on what this event is really about and that is to have a day of activities for everyone,” said Lomawaima.

She also added that group homes and centers off the reservation have been calling and asking if OSN will have their annual event because it’s something they look forward to attending every year.

Because the day was focused on activities, Lomawaima said they cutout speeches, door prizes and awards from the program.

“This day is dedicated to activities,” said Lomawaima. “We asked all of the participating programs to host a booth with an activity.”

Activities included Tic-Tac-Toe Frisbee hosted by the First Mesa Youth Center, Arts and Crafts by the Arizona Department of Early Intervention, a photo booth by the Hopi Veterans Program and much more.

The OSN had many volunteers from several Tribal departments and community members. This allowed the OSN staff to interact with the groups.

OSN was grateful for Raymond Namoki of the Hopi Nutrition Program who volunteered to cook lunch for the event. His staff made hominy stew, roasted chili, yeast bread and watermelon.

The event had an attendance of over 200, which was successful and are looking forward to next year’s event.

The OSN Program is no longer a part of the Department of Health and Human Services and has moved under the direction of the Department of Education since the beginning of the year. The move reflects the revised Organizational Chart approved by Hopi Tribal Council. The OSN Program has five staff: Elyse Lomawaima, Secretary; LouAnn Sockyma, Office Manager; Stewart Dukepoo, Job Coach Developer; Gayle Pahona, Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor; and James Fred, Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor and Acting Program Administrator.

The program assist individuals with disabilities to obtain employment or self-employment based on their job history, disability and future goals. OSN also assists in preparing resumes, applications, job coaching and vocational counseling.

Eligible individuals must have a medical or documented disability; be a member of a federally recognized tribe; and reside on the Hopi reservation.

For more information on the Special Needs Program, contact information is (928) 734-3417.

Evaluating Risk Perceptions of Hopi villages to the Tuba City, AZ Uranium disposal site

Carrie Joseph
Moenkopi Resident

A Moenkopi community member and graduate student at the University of Arizona is seeking participants to take part in focus groups that will discuss the “Risk Perceptions of Hopi villages to the Tuba City, AZ Uranium Disposal Site.”

Lower Village of Moenkopi
Thurs. Sept 22nd @ 530 pm at the Lower Moenkopi Community Building
Fri. Sept. 23rd @ 10 am at the Lower Moenkopi Community Building
Sat. Sept 24th @ 10 am at Upper Village Community Building

Upper Village of Moenkopi
Thurs. Sept. 29 @ 530 pm, Upper Village Community Building
Fri. Sept 30 @ 10 am, Upper Village Community Building

A focus groups consists of at least 8 participants who have an in-depth discussion about the Tuba City Uranium Disposal site, also known as the rare metals site. There will be 5 focus groups total, three at Lower Moenkopi and two at Upper Moenkopi. Each focus group will last two hours. This project will examine the risk perceptions of the Moenkopi community to the Tuba City Uranium Disposal site and associated waste, including, but not the environment and human health.

Your privacy will be protected and your name and identity will not be released at any time during this study. Participants will be compensated with a gift card to a local store upon completion of the focus group.

If you would like to learn more about this study or to participate, please contact principal investigator, Carrie N. Joseph at cj25@email.arizona.edu or (520) 365-2075. She will also be present at the Lower Moenkopi board meeting on Sept. 15th to give more information.

From P1 - Hopi to Standing Rock

During a planning on Sept. 7, the group asked for donations of a trailer and hitch, non-perishable food items, piki, blue flour, hohoy-si, boxed goods, laundry soap, matches, winter hats, scarves, blankets and tarp.

They also had a couple of fundraisers to help with gas and food along the way. Many people helped host bake sales and a split the pot raffle. They also asked for donations of art and crafts for an auction. Other monetary donations were through a GoFundMe account and venom.com. The estimated cost for the trip was near $5,000.

Honanie said other Hopi/Tewa members will meet them at Standing Rock before they march into camp. They are coming from California, Chicago and North Dakota.

In a letter addressed to the Hopi Tribal Council dated Sept. 6, the Hopi/Tewa group stated, “As Hopi, it is our covenant to steward the land and its resources. As people, we must look out for our future generations and teach our children to be caring members of our community and our world.”

The letter was read into record during a Hopi Tribal Council Session in which it also asked for Council’s blessing for the group to be designated officials of the Hopi Tribe in Standing Rock; however, Tribal Council was unable to grant them official status due to liability issues.

“Which I understand,” said Pahona. “They did give us words of encouragement and to have a safe trip.” Honanie said the planning for the trip is self-driven and everyone involved has a role in making this trip happen. Not to mention all of the support from other tribal nations who are sending their donations with the group.

“We have Hopi artist, FMES, teachers, the Paatu-waqatsi Water is Life Run, families, and individuals from all across Hopi, as well as Californina, Zuni, Tuba City, Urban Hopi population of Phoenix area, Winslow, Flagstaff, and the Tohono O’odham Nation who are gathering donations and supporting us,” said Honanie.

Upon arrival at Standing Rock, the group did a gift exchange of corn and a paho (feathers) and performed a Hopi dance.

The group thanked the Hopi Chairman, all the families and individuals who gave their support and messages from the Hopi people who wished them a safe journey and to remain humble, and respectful of their presence.

Phoenix Indian School Reunion scheduled for October 8

Patty Talahongva
Contact: 602-254-3247 or PILegacyProject@nativeconnections.org

Plans are shaping up for the Phoenix Indian School Reunion which will be held the weekend of October 8, 2016 in Phoenix. More than 30 alumni have already confirmed their attendance for the parade, the reunion and the art project which will take place that weekend.

“We are looking forward to meeting some of the former students, teachers and staff who called P.I. home,” says Janet Cantley, curator for the Heard Museum. The reunion is being hosted by the Heard Museum and the partners of the Phoenix Indian School Legacy Project, Native American Connections (NAC) and the Phoenix Indian Center (PIC).

“We are asking alumni to bring items such as letterman jackets, sweaters, photos, or trophies to donate to our gallery space,” says Diana Yazzie Devine, CEO of NAC. “We have received some items to display and we thank those alumni for their generosity.” The gallery will be located inside the former music building once the partners complete the renovations.

Alumni are invited to march in the annual NAC/ Native American Recognition Days parade on Saturday Oct. 8. A float is being built by alumni who live in Phoenix and everyone is asked to wear maroon and gold, which were the school colors.

Alumni can be dropped off by family members at the corner of 3rd Street and Oak by 8 a.m. the day of the parade. It will start there and head north, ending inside the parking lot at Steele Indian School Park. Alumni who can’t or don’t wish to walk the three-mile parade route can ride in the trolley. Water will be provided throughout the morning.

Once the parade is over, alumni will be led into Memorial Hall where the reunion will start. All alumni wishing to be a part of the reunion must RSVP by calling 602-254-3247 by the Sept. 29 deadline. Alumni are allowed one guest. The first part of the program will include introductions of classes represented and an overview of the P.I. Legacy Project. Around noon the reunion will move to the Heard Museum, 2301 N Central Ave, Phoenix, AZ 85004, where a luncheon will be served inside Steele Auditorium. The afternoon will include identifying people in photos from various decades and an open mic to record stories from the alumni.

The reunion will wrap up at 4 p.m. to give alumni a chance to have private dinners on their own with former classmates they see at the reunion.

Sunday morning (9/9) from 7:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. alumni are invited to a painting party at the Phoenix Re-news Community Garden. The entrance is a dirt road just north of Indian School Rd. off Central Ave. All art supplies will be donated. The theme is, “Phoenix Indian School” and alumni are being asked to paint a memory from their days at Phoenix Indian. 4’ X 8’ plywood will serve as the canvas. The organizers hope to get as close to 99 art pieces painted for this project.

Dozens of Native youth from the Phoenix Indian Center’s Future Inspired Native American Leaders program will also help prep the boards and paint alongside the alumni. “This art collaboration will bring together Native youth with people who actually experienced life at a government boarding school,” says Patricia Hibbeler, CEO of the PIC. “This is an important historical project for the generations.”

The art will be placed on the fence at the corner of Indian School Road and Central on November 5th which is, “Keep Phoenix Beautiful Day.” This art project will help kick off the celebration anticipating the reopening of the music building as a Native American Cultural and Business Center in 2017.

In 2018 the Heard Museum will reopen its revamped and expanded Boarding School Exhibit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month

Hopi-Tewa Women’s Coalition to End Abuse invites you to attend our events to support us in raising awareness in our communities about domestic violence and its effects on the family. More than 4 in 5 American Indian and Alaska Native women (84%) have experienced violence in their lifetime. This does not have to be an expectation for our future, by standing together we can make a difference for our people.

- Oct. 3 – Domestic Violence Awareness Month Kick Off Event, 5:00 p.m., Hopi Veteran’s Memorial Center, 1 & 2 Mile Fun Run and Candle light vigil.
- Oct. 12 – Values of a Hopi Woman Health Fair, 10 am – 2 pm Hopi Veteran’s Memorial Center

Award Winners Santa Fe Indian Market*

Hopi potter Al Qoyawayma won a best of division award for pottery at Indian Market’s award ceremony (Eddie Moore/Albuquerque Journal)

Dallin Maybee, chief operating officer of the Southwestern Association for Indian Arts, which organizes Indian Market, said an “army” of about 45 judges splits into groups and picks the winners. There are often heated debates over who should be named, he said.

Best in Class winners at the 2016 Santa Fe Indian Market are:
Benson Manygoats (Navajo) — Jewelry
Al Qoyawayma (Hopi) — Pottery
Jason Garcia (Santa Clara Pueblo) — Painting/Drawings/Graphics/Photography
Adrian Nasafotie (Hopi) — Pueblo Wooden Carvings

Crystal Dee, Hopi Tutuveni

While delivering the last issue of the Tutuveni, I passed a gentleman and his horse. I had to look twice because I saw that the horse displayed a license plate. I had never seen anything like that and I wanted to get a photo of the horse and gentleman. Getting a photo was my initial intention, but as I waited for him to come up the road, I wondered what his story was.

As he approached, I asked if I could take a photo of them and he happily said yes. I introduced myself as the Reporter for the Hopi Newspaper and I was out delivering the paper.

His response was, “Wow! You write the stories and deliver it yourself too?”

I laughed and he introduced himself as Jeremiah Brinkley of Missouri and his horse Skipper from Iowa.

I asked him what his story was and if he was doing this for some kind of awareness.

Brinkley replied, “No ma’am. I’m just enjoying life and traveling across country with Skip.”

Brinkley has been traveling with his horse across the United States for the last 30 years; traveling to the east coast or the west coast taking different routes each time.

For this trip, Brinkley was on his way to California where he would visit friends for the winter and then travel back to Missouri next spring.

Arizona was the eighth state he was traveling through and said it was a wonderful experience thus far. He traveled through the Navajo reservation and said they were very friendly and welcoming.

“They stopped to me and asked if Skip needed water or food and they fed me,” said Brinkley.

I asked where he was headed to and if he passing through any towns specifically during his trip. He said he was headed to Winslow and then onward.

“We want to stand on the corner in Winslow, Arizona and take a photo to send to my son for his birthday,” said Brinkley.

He didn’t know how long it would take to get to Winslow, but he was packed to camp out which he preferred.

I wanted to know more about Skip’s Iowa license plate. Brinkley said Skip was given to him by a family in Iowa when his first horse, Anna Marie passed. Getting the license plate was to honor Skip.

The license plate on Skip is an eye catcher and every-one stops and asks questions because they have never seen anything like it before.

“A guy said to me, ‘Oh, now you just made them think of another reason to tax us’,” said Brinkley as he laughed about it.

Apparently Brinkley is well known and has many followers on Facebook which his son manages. He told me to send him a request, “or however that works.”

After getting his story, we parted ways as he was trying to find a place to camp for the night.

I thought about him and wondered how far he had gotten and if I was going to see him again as he traveled through the Hopi reservation.

I sent him a “friend request” on Facebook and then posted my encounter with Brinkley to let my friend know who he was in case they ran into him on the reservation. Some friends shared my post and when he came through they already knew of him and took photos with him.

I was able to see him again when he was passing through Hopi and I wished him well because I knew I wouldn’t see him again.

His son posted an update on his father and Skip; they made it Winslow on Sept. 12 and said they will travel back to Missouri for winter instead of staying in California.

LASIK is a great option for people wanting to correct their vision. The Implantable Contact Lens (ICL) is that next advancement beyond LASIK that has been defined as providing high definition vision.
