

PUBLIC NOTICE

In support of Hopi Tribal Chairman Timothy L. Nuvangyaoma and Vice Chairman Clark W. Tenakhongva Executive Order #01-2020, declaring a public health-based state of emergency across the Hopi reservation due to the pandemic classification of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) and the health risks posed by its inevitable spread to the community members.

THE HOPI PUBLIC LIBRARY WILL BE CLOSED STARTING TODAY, MARCH 18, 2020 UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

REGISTERED USERS OF THE HOPI PUBLIC LIBRARY

You may return your borrowed library collection items to the book returns located at the following locations; Hotevilla Co-op Store, Hopi Cultural Center, Shungopavi Youth & Elderly Center, Sipaulovi Youth/Elderly Center, Polacca Circle M, Keams Canyon Café.

Enjoy the free eBooks, Audio Books, and eMagazines available 24/7 at, <http://navajocountylibraries.org/ebooks.asp>

Navajo County Library District offers access to free reference databases, activities and homework help for teens and children available 24/7 at, <http://navajocountylibraries.org>

For additional Hopi Public Library services information, one may contact the Library Office at (928) 734-4500, or the Library Cell at (928) 205-8073.